

Biognosis is a non-profit organisation, more specifically defined as the development, collection and dissemination of scientific knowledge in the field of environmental protection and health.

Especially by:

- ✓ the social intervention and presenting positions on key issues related to the environmental protection and health
- ✓ the cooperation with the public Authorities to promote issues relating to the environmental protection and health
- ✓ the cooperation with
- ✓ Universities in Greece and abroad,
- ✓ governmental and non-governmental organizations in Greece and abroad,
- ✓ the cooperation and exchanges (mobility) with similar institutions in the country or abroad.
- ✓ the application, implementation and management of national and international educational, development and research projects, related to the environmental protection and the health .
- ✓ the creation of websites and useful databases to support activities according the aims and objectives of the company at national and international level
- ✓ the implementation of educational speeches, targeting in various groups, and any other relevant actions
- ✓ the recording, popularization and disclosure of useful published results of researches carried out by Universities and research institutions
- ✓ the studies, researches, and implementation of applications that are relevant, with the purpose of autonomously or in collaboration with others partners in national and international level.
- ✓ the dissemination of the knowledge, with publications in newspapers and magazines, on radio and television stations, the internet, with events to raise awareness and education in a variety of groups, and educational activities, such as volunteering, organizing events, lectures, seminars, and thematic working groups
- ✓ the management of scientific meetings and conferences, training seminars and distance learning on the objectives of the company, and particularly informing, educating the public on issues related to the purposes
- ✓ organizing or participating in charitable activities, programmes and initiatives, in environmental protection and health